

QUALIFICATIONS OF DANIEL P. DeWAN

Daniel P. DeWan has been in the private practice of law in North Branch since 1977. Originally starting with a general practice, he now emphasizes the areas of family law and probate law, while continuing to work with business law issues, banking, real estate, bankruptcy and social security disability.

EDUCATION:

Juris Doctorate - William Mitchell College of Law - June 1977
B.A. Humanities & English - University of Minnesota - Aug. 1972
Hamline University Law School's Family Mediation Course - Aug. 2001

ADMISSION TO BAR:

State of Minnesota - Admitted October 21, 1977
U.S. District Court, District of Minnesota - Admitted June 5, 1978

COMMUNITY:

Volunteer Attorney Program - Chisago, Isanti, Kanabec and Pine Counties
Volunteer as attorney for East Central Habitat for Humanity
Represent and volunteer/semi-volunteer basis for several local churches
Active member and past president of North Branch Area Chamber of Commerce, as well as other community organizations